Has Machu Picchu called to you? Join me on a soul adventure to the powerful ancient sites of Peru where we will explore the Inca’s Sacred Valley on a soul deepening level. We will watch the sunrise in Machu Picchu, experience a Shaman ceremony, explore temples and learn about the Inca’s and Pachamama and discover your deeper self in group past life regressions. This mystical land will envelope us the beautiful energy of the Andes Mountains, ancient energetic sites and the gentle hearts of the Peruvian people. Listen to the ancient ones in the wind.

Our soul journey will include:

- Ollantaytambo: An ancient Incan town, the City of Dawn awaits us. We’ll see a 15th century Inca fortress and walk the stone streets exploring the town.
- Moray: An Inca archaeological site on a high plateau known for its concentric terrace
- Moras: Salt Mines, thousands of individual salt pools on a hillside, dating back to Incan times
- Pisac Market and Inca Ruins: The Pisac ruins are among Peru’s most intact ancient sites, and a perfect example of ingenious Inca architecture.
- Pisac Market: One of the most famous in the Cusco region, drawing many visitors to its famous Sunday market
- Qorikancha an Inca Temple: and bodies to the powerful experience we are embarking on. Inca ruins of a prominent 15th-century temple that once had walls & floors covered in pure gold.
- Saqsaywaman: One of the many architectural wonders of the Inca Empire, this breathtaking ruin was listed as an UNESCO world heritage site. The oldest structures in Saqsaywaman date back to the 1100s, and were built by the Killke culture.
- Cusco Cathedral: Situated on a sacred Inca site, this 16th-century cathedral took nearly 100 years to build.
- Plaza de Armas: Built on the remains of one of the most important gathering spots for the Incas, this square keeps the spirit of the fallen empire alive.
